Food Corps Waiver & Guidelines

By joining the Eco-Just Food Network Food Corps Program, I agree that:

1. Everyone deserves respect and I will treat other volunteers with respect including: respecting their person, identity, culture, race, sexuality, gender identity and pronouns, and differences in ability.
2. I will treat all farm equipment with care and as directed by the Lead Farmer.
3. I will not interfere with the farm's crops, equipment, and infrastructure without the Lead Farmer's direction.
4. I will prioritize my personal safety and the health and safety of other food corps members, including but not limited to:
    a. Wearing a mask in closed spaces (ex. In barns) and practicing physical distancing for pandemic safety
    b. Avoiding touching or using heavy farm machinery unless under the guidance of the lead farmer
    c. Taking care not to carry things that may be too heavy for me alone
    d. Asking for help when needed
5. If there is a health or safety concern, I will bring it to the attention of the Food Corps trainer or Lead Farmer as soon as possible.
6. While the Eco-Just Food Network and our Farmers will prioritize the health, safety, and needs of our Food Corps members, the Network and Farmers are not liable for personal injury, loss of items, or damage to personal property that may occur during the Food Corps program.

We ask that all participants, staff and volunteers make a commitment to this code of conduct for the quality, enjoyment and success of this project.

Please sign here to indicate that you have read, understood, and agree to the waiver and guidelines.
